LONDON.—(By the Associated Press.)—The little entente, composed of Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugo-Slavia has dispatched a note to Hungary demanding the surrender of former Emperor Charles, the demobilization of the Hungarian army, and reparations sufficient to defray the expenses of the little entente's mobilization, according to a Vienna dispatch, to the Central News agency Thursday. Unless Hungary replies satisfactorily within two days the little entente troops will enter Hungary, the dispatch said.

HERBERT HARRIMAN, N. Y. MILLIONAIRE, MARRIES HIS NURSE

PAOLI, Ind.—Herbert Harriman, millionaire financier of New York, and Miss Sarah Jane Hunter, a Red Cross nurse who served overseas, were married Wednesday in a quiet little Methodist parsonage. The bride is Harriman's third wife, and the marriage comes as a surprise to the millionaire's friends. Miss Hunter was a poor girl, the daughter of a car starter, and unknown in the New York society circle frequented by Harriman.

According to intimates, the wedding is purely a love match. Mr. Harriman, who was a captain in the army, met Miss Hunter when she returned to this country. Several months ago he became ill, and the former army nurse was one of the nurses retained to care for him. He remembered her and before he left for Europe to recuperate he proposed.

GERMANY WILL NOT ACCEPT PROPOSED SILESIAN AWARD WIRTH TELLS REICHSTAG

BERLIN.—Partition of Silesia under the decision of the council of the league of nations is not accepted by the German government, declared Chancellor Wirth in the reichstag Wednesday night. Reference of the Silesian problem to the league council by the allied nations was illegal in that it was contrary to the terms of the Versailles treaty, the chancellor asserted, and Germany will make clear her stand against the carrying out of the plan for drawing the Polish-German frontier through the richest coal mining and industrial sections of the district under dispute.

At the same time the government will send a delegate to sit with the Poles during the negotiations relative to the economic situation in Upper Silesia. This decision was reached because it was felt that refusal to do so would have an adverse effect upon German claims.

EXCESS PROFIT TAX REPEAL EFFECTIVE ON JANUARY 1, 1922

Senate Defeats Amendments to Retain Tax in Modified Form

SENATOR ASKS TAX ON BEER FOR MEDICINAL PURPOSES

Wadsworth Proposes Levy of Sixty Cents a Gallon

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Repeal of the excess profits tax, effective January 1, 1922, was approved by the senate Wednesday after two additional amendments seeking its retention in a modified form were rejected. Following action on the excess profits tax section the senate entered into a unanimous consent agreement for a vote at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Amendments to the section which increase the present flat tax on corporation earnings from 10 per cent to 15 per cent to make up for the loss in revenue which will be caused by the repeal of the excess profits tax.

Both of the amendments to the excess profits tax section which were defeated were offered by Senator Reed of Missouri, democrat.

It is expected that among amendments to be considered Thursday will be one providing for taxing undistributed earnings of corporations. An effort may be made also to reduce the 15 per cent flat tax provided in the senate committee bill.

The senate approved the amendment providing that the present exemption of $2,000 on corporation earnings shall apply only in the case of domestic corporations whose net income is $25,000 or less.

Wadsworth Wants Beer Tax

Among new amendments offered Wednesday was one by Senator Wadsworth imposing a tax on beer and other alcohol used for medicinal purposes as provided under the new treasury regulations.

The Wadsworth amendment imposes a tax of 60 cents per wine gallon on "intoxicating malt liquors containing one-half of 1 per cent or more of alcohol, and a tax of $1.20 per wine gallon on "vinous alcoholic medicinal preparations fit for use for beverage purposes."

Among senators who defended the excess profits tax in speeches were Senators La Follette, republican, and Simmons, Owen, Trammell and Reed, democrats.

SHE GAVE TILL IT HURT

"I can't afford much, but I want to give a little something."

She is just one of thousands of women who have to make their own living. She works in the kitchen of a little restaurant. Al Renier, who was canvassing the place for the Salvation Army, had handed her a card.

"I used to see them in Minneapolis when I was working there," said the woman. They gave poor people food, and spoke kindly to everybody. I want to help them, because they help others."

She handed Mr. Renier two dollars.

It was a thousand dollars to the means of wealthier people. In proportion, probably nobody in La Crosse gave as much as this good American woman.

MERCHANTS TO PROVIDE FUEL FOR THE POOR

Merchants' Bureau of Chamber of Commerce to Raise Fund to Furnish Coal this Winter

BUREAU VOTES TO HOLD ANOTHER WINTER CARNIVAL

Ford Day a Success, to be an Annual Event; Grocers, Meat Dealers to be Entertained

The Merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce went on record Wednesday night as favoring a plan whereby pledges would be obtained from members of the chamber to provide fuel for the poor this winter. A fund with which to buy coal, which will be distributed among needy families in La Crosse this winter.

Samuel Fellows, chairman of the food and fuel committee, reported on the decision of the committee to recommend that a fund be raised to provide fuel for the poor this winter. After considerable debate it was decided that the Chamber of Commerce should act as a clearing house for all orders for coal and that all social and relief agencies should be notified when coal will be available so that worthy persons might get orders from the organizations for fuel. The orders would be taken up with the Chamber of Commerce, and the order would then be sent to a coal company and the fuel delivered. In this manner it is hoped that duplication of coal orders would be avoided.

Ford Day a Success

Ford day was pronounced a huge success as a medium for advertising La Crosse, members of the bureau declared. Chairman Harry Burrows declared the city should have another Ford day next year. Joseph Fellows said it was the greatest stunt for advertising La Crosse that had been held in years and that as far as he personally was concerned it was a success. Mr. Phillips said he never sold so many electric fixtures in any one day as he did on Ford day. William Doerflinger said Ford day was one of the happiest days in his mercantile career because it was the first time that he had seen all the merchants of the city co-operating. "It was a mighty job, advertising Ford day but it was a job that was well done," said Mr. Doerflinger.

Mr. Burrows said that A. J. Phillips and A. E. Anderberg, chairman of Ford day, deserved much praise for their efforts in making the day a success. Mr. Phillips having charge of the printing and distribution of the "La Crosse Welcomes You" signs, while Mr. Anderberg had general supervision of the work. A vote of thanks also was tendered Harry Dahl for his efforts toward making the day a success. John Mulder, captain of the Ford day judges, asked for a decision as to the disposition of prizes which were not awarded. This matter was left with a committee for disposition.

To Hold Winter Carnival

The bureau voted to hold another winter carnival some time in mid-winter. Harry Williams of the committee has been sounding sentiment of another carnival reported that so far 50 per cent of the persons to whom casual cards asking whether they favored another winter carnival had answered in the affirmative.

The merchants also decided not to close their stores on Armistice day unless the American Legion took active part in the disarmament demonstration and asked that the stores close as part of the program to make the day a holiday.

Joseph Fellows' plan to have the bureau give the police and fire pension fund a check for $25 every time a policeman arrested an itinerant peddler or merchant who did not have a license and obtained a conviction was adopted.

E. H. Luching, secretary of the Master Builders' association, attended the meeting and asked that the Chamber of Commerce extend a welcome to the 800 to 1,000 builders who would attend the convention of master builders in La Crosse in January. He was told that a royal welcome would be extended to the delegates.

Entertain Grocers, Butchers

The Merchants' bureau also decided to entertain the grocers and meat dealers of the city at a dinner in November. Fred Mason, vice president of the Shredded Wheat company, probably will be asked to speak at the dinner.

William Doerflinger suggested that the last Thursday of each month be

SALVATION ARMY APPEAL STARTS STRONG IN CITY

Workers Find Everyone Ready and Prospects for Success Look Bright at Noon

VAUDEVILLE GIRLS, SELL HUNDREDS OF DOUGHNUTS

Over Fifty Dozen Disposed of in Stunt at Fourth and Main

WITH all committees on the job early Thursday morning, reports at noon were that the Salvation Army 1921 appeal for funds was going strong in La Crosse.

"This is an easy campaign," said one of the workers. "Everybody is willing to help the Salvation Army." Amounts given were seldom large, but in almost every case the person approached was eager to give according to his means. And the army fund swelled rapidly.

Figures Not Ready

No figures were available at noon as to the contributions so far given, as only fragmentary reports had been received from the committees covering the business district of both sides of the city. But from these fragmentary indications it was apparent that a substantial sum was to be raised.

In the rural communities outside of La Crosse the campaign was reported "moving right along." In most cases, however, the actual appeal was not to be made until Friday and Saturday, in order to permit more time for organizing and preparing the ground. However, all of the village chairmen were optimistic, and convinced that they would be able to report their territories nearly 100 per cent at the finish.

Incidentally, the first "100 per cent" report received at the headquarters came from the La Crosse Telephone company, where William C. Strehl was busy Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning. He turned in a list shortly after 9 o'clock in the morning.

BOXES AT SCHOOLS FRIDAY

Boxes for Salvation Army nickels and dimes which were placed in the schools on Thursday will remain over Friday. It was announced at headquarters. Many of the kiddies asked for another day, having forgotten to bring their contributions on Thursday morning. So the total of the schools' contributions will not be known until Friday evening.

Button-crop Big

By noon the Salvation Army button which was given as a "receipt" for every donation was blossoming on coat-lapels all over the city. It will continue to increase in numbers for the rest of the week, the committees reported, for in many cases the collectors found it necessary to make return calls to clean up the "duds and ends" and many dollars that are waiting for the Salvation Army will not be garnered until Friday or Saturday.

Dough Girls Work Fast

One big feature of the Salvation Army's day was the work of the "dough girls"—the eight members of the All Girls' Troupe at the Majestic theater who put in the noon hour selling doughnuts to all the passers-by at Fourth and Main streets. With Mrs. Ryan of the Salvation Army on a big Montague truck, as chaperon, the girls played and sang, and took turns peddling doughnuts through the crowd and in adjacent stores and offices. They reaped a considerable harvest, their coin boxes being heavy with big silver, bills and many smaller coins. Scores of people gave them a dollar a piece for doughnuts—one man who wore the clothes of a workman stopped at the truck and handed Mrs. Ryan a five dollar bill. "I had a son in the army," he said, as he waved aside the doughnuts and passed on.

"I did my bit over there," said a young man who approached him to buy a doughnut. "And the Salvation Army fed you, too, didn't they?" replied Miss McElroy. "You're back home, I lost a brother over there. That's why I'm working for the Salvation Army today."

The young man dropped a dollar in the box.

LABOR HEADS IN CONFERENCE TO DECIDE ACTION

Consider Proposition to Leave Adjustment of Complaints to the Railway Labor Board

BOARD CONSIDERING ORDER FORBIDDING THE STRIKE

Hooper Presents Board's Proposals at Labor Conference Today

CHICAGO, Ill.—The three grand vice presidents of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, H. P. Daugherty, L. G. Griffing and F. A. Burgess, arrived at the labor board headquarters at 3:30 p. m. and went into conference with Ben M. Hooper.

Asked if he brought good tidings Mr. Daugherty replied to a newspaper reporter: "Yes, but don't imagine that means too much."

CHICAGO.—The executives of the five railway unions reassembled in a joint session at 3 o'clock. Just before the meeting, W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen, said:

"The situation is unchanged insofar as the trainmen are concerned. Our strike, ballot, says that when one of the other unions goes out, we go. That stands."

CHICAGO, Ill.—(By the Associated Press.)—Executive committees of the Big Five brotherhoods who possess the power to call off the railroad strike scheduled for next Sunday met with their five chiefs Thursday in conferences said to have been called at the instance of the railroad labor board.

The proposition said to have been made to the railroad employees after Wednesday's public investigation is that they should call off the strike and in trust to the labor board adjustment of the complaints which led up to the strike vote.

Whether the brotherhood chiefs consider this a "satisfactory settlement" of their grievances, which they have insisted upon before revocation of the strike call, was the question to be decided at the conference of union leaders this morning.

J. C. Cashon, head of the switchmen, asserted after yesterday's session of the board's investigation that nothing had been brought out which would affect the strike call.

Members of the board announced after the hearing that they would make known their decision on the threatened strike which the railroad executives say is in violation of the board's wage cut July 1, Thursday or Friday.

Hooper at Conference

Ben W. Hooper, of the railroad labor board, appeared before the board, presenting what he described as a "vague possibility" for settlement. Hooper left the conference shortly after noon and stated that the strike had not been settled yet, but that settlement could hardly be expected while he was at the meeting.

The union meeting broke up soon after Mr. Hooper left with an announcement that the five organizations would hold separate meetings about one p. m. and a joint meeting at 3 p. m.

"Did you settle the strike?" Hooper was asked upon leaving the meeting.

"Well, you could hardly expect them to do that with me in there," he replied. "I was not sent by the board but went on my own volition. I still believe that the only basis of settlement is the resolution adopted by the board."

Mr. Hooper referred to the board's request that the men refrain from striking and give the board a chance to act on questions of further wage reductions or rules changes that the railroads may bring before it.

Made no Promises

Mr. Hooper stated after the meeting that he wanted it understood that he had made no promises for the board or for himself. He said that the only thing he desired to bring before the meeting was the copy of the resolutions passed by the board.

Presented Board Resolution

"I have done that and they will now take the matter up," Mr. Hooper said. "We were surprised to find out

THOUSANDS PAY TRIBUTE TO T. R. TODAY BUT OYSTER BAY REMEMBERS HIM AS FRIEND

OYSTER BAY, N. Y.—By The Associated Press.—Residents of this little town today bowed their heads in a reverent memory of a beloved fellow citizen.

While the rest of the nation has dedicated the day to celebrating the sixty-third anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt, statesman, president and man of letters, Oyster Bay remembers the familiar, sympathetic, big-hearted "T.R." whose grave on the hillside is an ever present reminder of their loss.

The little wooded cemetery has become the object of pilgrimages from all over the world and thousands were jammed for today.

Among them were expected hundreds of former friends and thousands of admirers, besides formal delegations of Spanish and world war veterans and Boy Scouts of America. They came for the most part to lay flowers or flags on the grave, while diplomats from foreign countries bring testimonials of respect from their governments and peoples abroad.

But old time neighbors and intimates of the President and his family would go in to New York and buy the gifts asked for, adding to each a "dot" of rock candy, a confection of which the colonel recalled he had been fond as a boy.

Only Missed Twice

On Christmas eve he and Mrs. Roosevelt would drive over to the school, where, under a great elm tree, he would distribute the presents to forty or more youngsters and then join in singing carols and romping and laughing with the spirit of play that never quite deserted him. From that time his own children were old enough to go to school, he missed playing Santa Claus but twice—once when he was in Africa, and again during his illness at Roosevelt hospital.

Even on that last Christmas eve, the children were not forgotten. Colonel Roosevelt delegated Archie to attend to his annual duties, telling his son what kind of candy to buy and how to play the part of Saint Nicholas. The night Archie played Santa Claus his father told friends who visited his bedside how much he missed participating in the event.

So today these children, many of them "grown-ups" now, with children of their own, carry Oyster Bay's message of respect to the graveside. The present school pupils marched to the cemetery in a body and lay a wreath on the grave. Then they sang the colonel's favorite songs, and their teacher told of his good deeds and exhorted them to follow his example.

Flowers Cover Grave

Though Roosevelt's birthday has become recognized as the appropriate time for paying formal tribute to his memory, thousands of people have visited his grave during the year. Flowers by the basketful were strewn upon it daily last summer by motorists who gathered the blooms as they toured over Long Island. On several Sundays their offerings covered the little plot inside the massive iron grating with a floral blanket several feet thick.

Scores of incidents illustrating the esteem in which foreign visitors regard the memory of Roosevelt have been marked before the gate of the cemetery plot. The grave is near the top of a conical knoll rising in one corner of the little burial grounds. Overhead the autumn foliage of encircling forest trees form the vaulted ceiling of a natural cathedral. Facing it, a two boys, of about 12 and 14 years, looked in silence through the bars for crooked thing. Try, if you can, to be like him."

BEAUTIFUL DRAMA IS INTERPRETED BY LOCAL SINGERS

Normanna Saengerkor Concert
Wednesday Evening Proves
Delightful Event

The magnificent drama of the beautiful "Landkending" of Grieg was given a splendid interpretation by the Normanna Saengerkor on Wednesday evening. This famous number, which concluded the program of the first Normanna concert of the season, was given in so artistic and thoughtful a manner by the chorus that every mood, every picture was unerringly conveyed to the listener. Never were the particular talents of this excellent choral organization more apparent than in the rendition of this number. Their director, Mr. E. O. Forseth, possesses himself and has infused into his charges a fine instinct for the dramatic which alone makes possible such work as this.

This number had no rival on the program which is not to imply that the remainder of the program was anything but delightful. Of the three other numbers given by Normanna were enjoyed the stirring "The Oss Even" most and "In Flinders Field" the least. This latter number is pure prejudice resulting from an acquired preference for the local setting of that poem which we have heard only as a solo but which would seem ideal for a male chorus. Normanna Saengerkor shows the growth resulting from the past months of work. The chorus seems better balanced than when heard last spring and their work possesses a finish which is gained only through unceasing effort.

Features of Concert
Mr. Forseth's voice was as richly appealing as always. In the song of "Landkending" the poetical view of the king's prayer was excellently given, and deeply moving. Mr. Otto Ziehe and Mrs. Forseth sang a duet, "Sjovindene" which was pleasing, and Mr. Forseth gave two other little songs, "Kirken Er et Gamalt Hus" and "Vem fra den East Wise Men came."

Miss Louise Rindson, whose organ accompaniment added so much to the beauty of the final number, played also two organ solos which aroused murmurs of pleasure from the audience restrained by the customs of the place from expressing appreciation in the usual manner. The Chautauque singing is of some help in a situation like this and might also indicate the audience's desire for more which had so patiently to be repressed peacefully after Miss Rindson's beautiful rendition of the "Mormon."

Prof. Peterson Plays
Professor Peterson, veteran violinist and cholin teacher, played the well known Ernest "Elegie" and a group of Norwegian airs which he himself had set in what he has called a "Norwegian Rhapsody." Perhaps in the absence of applause he more definite compliment could have been paid this second number of Mr. Peterson's than the light rhythmic tapping of feet with which many of the audience followed the rhythmic swing of the folk tunes. It was a real pleasure to many to have this opportunity to hear again this vivacious who has appeared so little in public during the past several years.

It Will Grow
Democracy can never be extended by force, as you would find a net over a flock of birds; but give it a chance and it will grow, as a tree grows, by sending its roots into the heart of humanity and lifting its top toward the light and spreading its arms wider and wider until all the persecuted flocks of heaven find refuge beneath its protecting shade.

Henry Van Dyke.

DUNHAM UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE GAME AT EAU CLAIRE

Sturdy Tackle Temporarily Out of Red and Black Lineup Because of Illness

LOCALS ANTICIPATE HARD SCRIMMAGE IN NORTH FRIDAY

Local Squad Undergoes Staff Practice Past Week

It was announced late Thursday that Ray Dunham, tackle, would be in condition to play in the Eau Claire game Friday afternoon.

With definite announcement that Ray Dunham, tackle, will be unable to fill his position in the Eau Claire game in the northern city Friday, a little shade of gloom prevails over the Red and Black. The temporary loss of Dunham because of illness will be felt both in kicking and on the right side of the line.

The game will be played on the Eau Claire field, and the way things look will result in one of the stiffest struggles the locals will meet this season. Eau Claire has been strong all season, and is in the best of shape, and observers throughout the state concede them an even chance for victory.

In their game with Madison last Saturday, though defeated by a 14-7 score, the Eau Claire offensive tactics in the first half outplayed the Madison front, and Madison is possessed with one of the best forward walls that they have had in years.

Northerners Believed Strong

With six regulars back in uniform Eau Claire boasts an unusually strong aggregation and is extremely confident of taking La Crosse's measure. They overweighed their Madison opponents 10 pounds to the man, and their aggressive spirit nearly proved disastrous to the Capital city squad.

The squad has been undergoing stiff physical practice for the last week and Coach Keenan will put up a hard fighting squad filled with plenty of pep and equipped with a strong determination to win. With all the rest of the men in good shape, La Crosse high can be counted on to give the northerners a strong run, if not a defeat.

Probable lineup for the game: La Crosse—Holley, rec; Bateman, rt; Tobias, rt; Hankerson or Henkle, lt; Bakum, lt; Liscovec, lt; Killian, lt; Wegert or Birnbaum, qb; Jorris or Fowler, qb; Abraham, lb; Hurley or Maloney, lb.

IOWA ELEVEN BOASTS TWO DADDY MEMBERS OF THE GRID SQUAD

Glen Devine and Donald Macrae Rearing Sons to be Future Grid Material

IOWA CITY.—The State University of Iowa, looked upon as having one of the season's best football teams because of its defeat over Notre Dame and Illinois, has two gridiron stars who not only play football themselves but who are training and Donald Macrae. Their sons, they claim, are coming stars of the gridiron.

Devine's son is seven months of age, while Macrae's is three and one half.

Devine and Macrae are stars on the present football team, and both play halfback. This is Macrae's first year in college football, but Devine is completing his third season.

These players are believed to have established a precedent in regard to bringing on the next generation of football stars before the present generation has completed its own activities on the gridiron. Devine is a brother of Aubrey Devine, captain of this year's team.

NORMAL MEETS MILWAUKEE HERE ON FRIDAY IN FIRST HOME GAME OF THE SEASON

Coach Downer to Bring His Squad of Experienced Football Men With Determination to Avenge Defeat of Last Year

Keeler's warriors will take the field Friday afternoon in their first home game of the season. Their opponents will be the strong Milwaukee normal team, which so far this season has not suffered defeat.

Though they were downed by the locals on their own field last season by the decisive score of 33 to 7, the Brewers are determined to turn the tables this year. The team which the Keelerites met on their trip to Milwaukee was composed largely of new men, somewhat green at the game. Most of these men are back this season, with a year of good experience to strengthen them.

The La Crosse team has been going strong this week. In scrimmages Wednesday night they tore the second team defense almost at will, repeatedly scoring on the scrubs. The lineup for Friday's encounter has not yet been announced, but it will probably be much the same as the one which started the game at Whitewater.

Keeler has been working Capt. Kevin at center and Stoneman in Kevin's guard during practice, but it is not known whether they will occupy these positions Friday.

Friday evening the Booster club will stage a dance in the large gymnasium in honor of the visiting team and their local opponents. All the boosters of normal school athletics are invited to be present.

GILBERT FLEMING, CAPTAIN OF SPARTA BALL CLUB, DIES

Death Caused by Tumor on Brain; Was Hit by Ball in Hillsboro Tournament

SPARTA, Wis.—Gilbert Fleming, a young business man of Sparta, died Saturday morning of last week, after a very brief illness from tumor on the brain. He was in his usual health and good spirits on Friday, except that he complained of a headache. Saturday morning he remained in bed, still suffering from the headache, and yet did not wish a physician summoned.

Later his wife went to him and found him in an unconscious condition and sent for a doctor. He was rushed to the hospital in the ambulance, but died about fifteen minutes after reaching there.

Not being able to determine the cause of his death, the doctors performed a post mortem examination upon request and it was found that his death was caused by a tumor on the brain. He was captain of the baseball team here and at the tournament at Hillsboro was hit on the head with a ball, and it is thought that is where the trouble started.

Native of Elroy Fleming was born in Elroy, Wis., seven years ago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fleming, both of whom are dead. Five years ago, he was married to Miss Nina Torrence of Kendall, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Charles Torrence, now residents of Sparta.

Three little children, with the mother, survive him, and also two brothers and a sister.

The deceased came to Sparta a year ago, and purchased the post and billiard hall in the Kaufman block on Oak street. His brother-in-law, Rosamond Torrence, bought in with him, and the firm name was Fleming & Torrence.

Funeral services were held in St. Patrick's Catholic church Tuesday morning, Rev. F. H. Block conducting the service and the remains were then shipped to Elroy for interment in the Catholic cemetery. At Elroy, all the business places were closed during the afternoon, in respect for their former business man, deceased.

BELOIT VICTORY OVER PURPLE PUTS SQUAD ON SKIDS

Over-Confident Beloit Team Gets Two Wallops by Own Class Since

BELOIT, Wis.—It was a bad thing for Beloit college football when the little state-line team beat the Big Northwestern team at Evanston at the sort of this season. Anyway, that's what Coach Tommy Mills says, and indications are he is right.

Of course, it brought a lot of glory to Beloit for the time being, but Beloit hasn't done a blooming stunt since. In fact the boys who licked the Purple have been wallowed a couple of times since by schools in their own class and besides that are all crippled up and have two or three more stiff games to play.

Team is Overconfident "Beating Northwestern was the worst thing that could have happened to us, although, of course, I felt proud and so did all the gang," was the way Mills put it. "You see we were all keyed up for the game and it was the first one of the season. We simply played ourselves out in that one game."

"If we had been thoroughly licked it wouldn't have been so harmful because the boys then would have had a different mental attitude. They are just kids, you see, and it's only natural that they thought pretty well of themselves after that victory."

"Maybe the rest of the schedule looked pretty easy. Now we have had a couple of wallops right in the stomach and the boys aren't a bit stuck up any more. They are likely to get down to real business and win a game worth while before the season is over."

Capt. McCarthy, playing his fourth year, is a regular end, but is liable to be used at quarter or halfback any time. He's a good man carrying the ball and a sure kicker.

Dahlgren a Good Tackle The other end is filled by Rosendo, a freshman of 155 pounds, who has shown great promise. The tackles are splendid. Olson, a 155 pound freshman, plays end, and the other is most capable filled by Dahlgren, who has

CAPTURING HORSE THIEF WILL GIVE SHERIFF A REWARD

Ed. Miller of La Crosse to Receive Two Hundred Dollars from Winona County

Edward C. Miller, sheriff of La Crosse county, was awarded the $200 reward offered by the state of Minnesota for capturing and returning to the owner a horse thief, Oliver C. Ross, wanted at Winona. Such rewards are not very often claimed at the present time, but the law still stands in Minnesota.

James C. E. Callaghan of Winona has issued an order directing County Treasurer Archie M. Brown to pay over this sum from funds which may be available.

Ross was arrested by Sheriff Miller on information furnished by Sheriff George Hueck of Winona, in the township of Shelby in La Crosse county. The horse was taken from George Hueck's farm near Lewiston, and Ross and the horse were traced to Winona and across the high wagon bridge into Wisconsin.

After the arrest by Sheriff Miller, Sheriff Hueck came to La Crosse and took the prisoner back. The horse was stolen September 16. Examination was waited in municipal court by Ross Sept. 22. Subsequently he went before Judge Callaghan in the district court, pleaded guilty to a charge of grand larceny, and was remanded to the county jail, where he still is a prisoner. His case having been taken under consideration by the court before passing sentence.

SET BLOODHOUNDS ON TRAIL OF MAN WHO SHOT DAKOTA PRIEST

Murder Bears Striking Resemblance to Slaying of California Priest

BRAD, S. D. — Bloodhounds sent here from Mitchell, are expected Thursday to furnish a clue to the man whose call on Rev. A. B. Balkup here early Wednesday was followed by the murder of the priest on a highway just outside the city.

City and county police officers worked throughout the day and night in an effort to find something tangible in the many rumors that came to their attention. The fact that no one but the unfortunate priest saw the man has given officers a severe headache.

Bishop Lawler, at whose residence Father Balkup made his home expressed the belief that the murder was the work of a mentally unbalanced person. Rewards totaling $4,500 have been offered for the arrest of the slayer.

The circumstances of the tragedy bear a striking resemblance to the recent murder in California of Rev. Patrick E. Heslin. Like the California case, Father Balkup was called from his home before daylight, ostensibly to administer the sacrament to a dying man. His automobile had been tampered with apparently and he was forced to accompany his strange visitor on foot.

Several shots were heard by neighbors and later the body was found in the highway.

WISCONSIN LEADS NATION IN EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR CHILD WORKERS SAYS HAMBRECHT

MADISON, Wis.—The schools of Wisconsin, through vocational training and part-time education laws, are reaching out to nearly 25,000 children who otherwise would lose educational contact as laborers, according to George F. Hambrecht, director of vocational education. Recent legislation opens the way to even fuller educational opportunity, placing this state at the head of the nation in caring for the needs of its children, Hambrecht says.

Unregulated child labor has largely disappeared from Wisconsin industry since 1911 when the first vocational education law was enacted, and part-time education instituted, the state director declares. Since then the state has extended and strengthened its educational laws until 50,000 are now in vocational and continuation schools.

The last legislature is said to have taken an important step in advance when it passed the Day bill providing that children from 14 and 16 must attend school at least half time, and those from 16 to 18, at least eight hours a week, during working hours. This, Mr. Hambrecht says, gives opportunity to all children for educational contact up to the age of 18 and brings nearer the ideal of equal educational opportunity.

"Education of the child is the economic savings bank of the rising generation," Mr. Hambrecht declares. "Every dollar invested in the correct education of a child will insure happiness and usefulness of the individual in adult life and bring wealth returns to the country. It will increase the economic value and earning power of those who have been given this advantage."

Opposition to the enforcement of the new part-time compulsory education laws is largely due to misunderstanding, the vocational director believes. It is his opinion that parents and employers of child labor may fail to recognize that it is a duty to the child that should guide this state in expanding its educational opportunities. In the opinion of Mr. Hambrecht, vocational education in Wisconsin was largely built up through the plans and ideas of the late Dr. Charles McCarthy, former head of the state legislative library. It was his vision, Mr. Hambrecht says, that gave the state its broad laws and the machinery for putting them into effect.

MAN SERVING TIME FOR PICKETING IS FREED BY BLAINE

MADISON, Wis.—Peter Christ, Rindelander, who was sentenced to prison for four months for contempt of court, was pardoned by Governor Blaine Thursday, Christ was sentenced to prison after he disobeyed a temporary injunction against picketing in a strike at Rindelander.

"To continue this man in prison after the strike out of which the contempt proceeding grew has long been settled, will only give force to the fact that 'universal education should go along with and accompany the universal ballot in America; that the work and the mind of the citizen should be the basis of our republic; that the education, the thought and the multiple growth was settled late in July and August of the year 1914, and the reasons for the future people; and that the intelligence of the citizen no longer exists, and hence the mass of the people was the light and cause for imprisonment has ceased," the life of the republic," sums up the Working men from over the state by thousands have asked the governor to pardon Christ.
